

Australian Services Excellence Standards (ASES)

The station has achieved its intended purpose of becoming a fully accredited homelessness service.

The Station Ltd's principles strongly continues to maintain its accreditation.

Attainment and maintenance of quality for our service delivery requires a constant remainder for whom and how we deliver our service through our organisation.

Since 2002 the Station has been one of first homeless service organisation fully accredited.

Our latest Accreditation is valid until 2024.