

News from The Station Ltd Autumn & Winter 2022

The Station Ltd has re-opened the dining room.

We are now serving breakfast and lunch whilst clients can sit-down to enjoy their breakfast and hot meals.

Clients can watch the morning news, movies in the afternoon, grab a book to read and use the computers, to check their emails. Staff also continue to enforce basic covid restrictions such as wearing masks, social distancing and hand sanitiser.

Our main goal is to provide case management assistance for those in need of housing, mental health concerns, drug and alcohol support, referrals and advocacy.

We are very grateful for the donations we receive from our donors and supporters

Housing Support Assistance

We have new additional housing support worker his name is Morteza and he is actively involved in assisting you with finding a safe place to live.

The Housing Support Team Franco & Morteza can help you with navigating the housing system, providing case management to assist and support with housing applications.

Anyone needing assistance with looking for long term accommodation is required to make an appointment to see our Housing workers.

Mental health, Alcohol & Other Drugs

If you are struggling with issues related to mental health, alcohol and other drugs, please see our AOD Workers Martina or Graciela who can provide support, information and referrals to Detox and Rehab services.

We can also assist you to find a psychologist or counsellor in the community, if you are experiencing mental health concerns.

Strategic planning at Ettalong beach

Recently staff at The Station Limited went to Ettalong beach for strategic planning. During the two days we shared ideas about the future of The Station Limited. We meet with board members and the CEO to discuss and share ideas and brain stormed ways to sustain the service for many years to come.

Thanks to our Stakeholders

St. Vincent's Hospital Homeless Health Team,
The Australian Dental Association and the Homeless Persons Legal Services for their continued support.

From the Board of Directors, Clients and Staff at the Station Ltd we thank you for your ongoing support.

Thank you to all our supporters who made contributions through out the year.
